Objective:

To work in the Textile Design and Fine Art industry.

I am a Textiles Art and Artefact (Bdes Hons) graduate with a large collection of taught and self-taught skills. I wish to work as an Artistic director, designer and maker in collaboration with companies who require a broad set of design skills and expertise. My work is often informed by my medical and scientific research and in turn takes on the role as a coherent visual translator addressing the public.

I wish to apply this creative translation to improve on a company or service's visual appeal and artistic success in the public eye.

Upcoming work and Awards:

2016. Irish Representative at Textiles Triennial, Poland. May-October 2016.
